Prospect Park

Birding in Prospect Park – Home to the nation's first urban Audubon Center, Prospect Park is home to over 200 visiting and resident species of bird, many rare and unusual. Learn how to identify bird species using field guides and binoculars, and witness the wonders of bird life in Brooklyn, all under the guidance of an expert Teacher-Naturalist from the Prospect Park Audubon Center.

90-minute tour and Free Bird Guide.....$9 pp

Prospect Park by Land and Water – Explore Prospect Park on board the Independence, an authentic turn-of-the-century-style electric boat offering whisper-quiet tours of the Park's waterways. Following the narrated ride, guests will head back to solid ground for a guided walking tour of flower-filled meadows and thriving woodlands studded with flowing waterfalls and trickling streams. This tour is available April through October.

Two-hour Walking Tour & Boat Ride.....$10 pp

Explore the Natural History of Brooklyn's Jewel – Our expert naturalist will board your bus for a narrated tour of the park. Stops include the Prospect Park Audubon Center, housed inside the beautiful 1905 Beaux Arts-style Boathouse; the rolling 90-acre Long Meadow; the Neathermead, a fairy tale-like clearing in the woods; and the Park's lovingly restored ravine, a waterfall-studded gorge cutting through the center of Brooklyn's only forest.

Step-on Guide, 4-hour Tour.....$11 pp

History Comes Alive in Prospect Park – Learn about Prospect Park through the eyes of its designers, Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux, the renowned landscape architects who also designed Central Park but considered Prospect Park to be their finest achievement. Tour Lefferts Historic House, an 18th century Dutch farmhouse, and learn how Brooklynites have lived over the past few hundred years. Be transported back to 1905 at the Beaux-Arts terracotta Boathouse.

Guided 4-hour Walking Tour and House Tour.....$14 pp
